LOTTO LEARN: EASY TRAINING FOR NEW TEAM MEMBERS

It's essential to make sure new hires are well trained – especially during the busy summer months when many retailers bring on extra staff. The Basic Course on Lotto Learn – WCLC's online lottery terminal training platform – offers a thorough overview of lottery products, sales steps, and ticket validation procedures.

Because Lotto Learn is available online, staff can complete their training anytime and from anywhere – whether at work, at home, or while on the move.

How to Get Started

1. Go to lottolearn.ca and choose your region.
2. Select "Sign up," then enter your personal email, full legal name, and create a password. You'll also need your store's SYSID.
3. Check your inbox for a confirmation email and click the link to verify your account.
4. After verification, head to the Courses section and add the course that matches your role to your Learning Plan. Then go to My Learning Plan, click Details, followed by Activate and Launch to begin.

Once all modules are complete, participants must pass a final exam to earn certification. They'll have up to three attempts. If you don't pass after the third try, you'll need to restart the course. Successful participants will receive a Lottery Training Certificate.

Need Help? Reach out to Retail Spot at 1-800-665-0133 during business hours or email lottolearn@wclc.com.

KEEP YOUR RETAIL EMPLOYEE LIST UP TO DATE

With seasonal hiring underway, now is a great time to review and update your Retail Employee List.

Maintaining an accurate list helps ensure consistent employee information is recorded across the Lotto Spot network throughout the Prairies and Territories.

How to Update Your Retail Employee List:

1. Access the Services menu through the Function button.
2. Select Retail Employee List to open the main screen, where you'll see two options: Sales Rep Sign-on and Manager Sign-on
3. Choose Manager Sign-on
4. Enter your Pass Number (provided by your provincial Account Representative) to access the list. Please note, managers have up to five attempts to sign in before the function is locked. If this happens, an error message will appear on the terminal—contact Retail Spot to have it reset.

For retailers with multiple terminals, be sure to update your Employee Retail List using the terminal with the lowest SYSID number.

SIZZLING SUMMER SATURDAYS

LOTTO 6/49 is turning up the heat this summer! The Saturday, August 29 LOTTO 6/49 draw will hold an additional 20 draws of $40,000. That's $800,000 in additional prizes, on top of the Classic and Gold Ball draws!

Advertising includes a paid campaign, IPT, CDU and online.

BOOST YOUR SALES – RECOMMEND A LOTTO PACK

Lotto Packs offer a convenient way for players to purchase multiple lottery selections at once, making the process easier for both players and staff. With a single button, you can print several tickets at the same time, helping you serve customers quickly and efficiently.

While the $11 Classic Pack (featuring one LOTTO MAX selection, one LOTTO 6/49 selection, and EXTRA on both) has traditionally been a popular option, the $25 Super Pack has become a close second seller. This pack includes a combination of LOTTO MAX, WESTERN MAX, DAILY GRAND, LOTTO 6/49, and WESTERN 649 selections, all with EXTRA added – resulting in a higher overall purchase value.

With the LOTTO MAX price increase from $5 to $6 in April, Lotto Pack pricing has been adjusted to reflect the updated game cost. Be sure to familiarize yourself with the updated pricing so you can confidently assist customers and recommend the best options.

There's a Lotto Pack to match every player's needs. If someone isn't sure what to choose or wants to try something new, suggesting a Lotto Pack is an easy way to enhance their experience – while also helping grow your sales. You can also recommend Advance Play as a convenient add-on – especially during the busy summer months. For players who travel or may not purchase tickets regularly, Advance Play makes it easy to buy entries for multiple upcoming draws in advance all at once, ensuring they never miss a chance to play their favourite games.

JULY SAFETY MONTH

PROMOTING HEALTHY PLAY

July is widely recognized as a time to focus on safety, and a great reminder that safety in lottery retail goes beyond physical security, it also means supporting healthy play and spreading awareness about the resources available to players who may be experiencing issues with problem gambling.

Retailers play an important role in promoting healthy play by creating a positive environment and staying aware of signs that a player may be struggling. Encouraging customers to play for fun, set limits, and access support resources if needed helps keep the experience enjoyable for everyone.

If a player is looking for help, it's only a phone call away.

THEFT AT RETAIL

Theft can happen in any retail environment, and lottery products are no exception. Being prepared and knowing what to do if theft happens helps protect your business. Most importantly, your safety always comes first – stock can be replaced, you cannot. If you ever feel threatened or unsafe, step away and seek help immediately.

While retailers are responsible for the cost of tickets that are printed but not paid for or cancelled, WCLC may consider reimbursement for lottery product to help minimize the impacts of theft on your business, provided all procedures have been followed.

If theft occurs, act quickly and follow these steps:

1. Report the incident to Police or RCMP and obtain a Police Report Number.
2. Call Retail Spot (1-800-665-0133) with incident details and information on any missing tickets.
3. Notify your insurance provider.
4. Contact your Provincial Account Representative for equipment or ticket support.
5. Share any relevant video footage with Police, your Regional Marketing Organization and WCLC.

If a loss remains after completing these steps, please contact your Provincial Account Representative for further guidance.

Special visits open WONDERHUB to kids facing health, sensory challenges

Visiting a museum can be a fun and educational experience, but it can also present challenges for those who are immuno-compromised or deal with sensory sensitivities, to such an extent that they may not even be able to visit at all.

With that in mind, the employees at Saskatchewan's only children's museum have taken steps to ensure that everyone has an opportunity to enjoy a trip to the facility. The Nutrien Wonderhub has introduced a series of immune-safe and sensory-friendly visits that allow kids and caregivers who need extra safeguards to still experience everything the museum has to offer.

"Parents and caregivers reached out asking for designated low-sensory times and opportunities for visits with enhanced health and safety protocols in place," marketing and communications coordinator Courtney Troesch explained. "Many shared that they wanted to bring their children to the Wonderhub, but the realities of the often busy environment made it difficult or impossible."

For children and families who are immunocompromised, immune-safe visits feature reduced capacity, staggered activities, and enhanced cleaning and mask protocols. And for those who live with sensory sensitivities, the sensory-friendly visits include lowered lighting, no background music, adjusted sound exhibits and sensory bags to create a calm and welcoming atmosphere.

"By intentionally adjusting the environment and programming, these visits create an experience where families don't have to worry about health risks or sensory overload. They can simply play, explore and learn together at their own pace. We believe that every child has the right to play and these visits help make that possible," Troesch said.

Funding from the Sask Lotteries Community Grant Program has been key to making the visits not only possible, but free for families throughout the 2025-26 season. The support helps cover extended Wonderhub staffing, enhanced cleaning, sensory equipment, extra accessibility measures and even the creation of programming designed specifically for the special visits.

"We're grateful for this partnership. This investment allows us to reduce barriers for families who benefit from a more specialized museum experience and ensures that cost is never an obstacle to participation," Troesch said.
